SPECIAL OPPORTUNITIES

PMUAB SUNDAY

The Presbyterian Ministries United Appeal of Birmingham (PMUAB) ensures that no Kirkwood by the River resident is asked to leave because they have outlived their financial resources, that students have access to scholarships for environmental learning opportunities and summer camp at Living River, and that IPC Social Services can provide financial assistance to STAIR, CFAF and Open Door families in times of crisis. Learn more about the Kirkwood by the River Life Care Fund, the IPC Social Services Fund and the Living River Scholarship Fund during morning worship.

ADULT SUMMER SUNDAY SCHOOL

TED Talks returns with "TED Talks 2: Faith Worth Sharing" beginning June 10, and Samford University professor Dr. Jeff Leonard leads "Stepping Back: Considering the World that Produced the New Testament" starting June 17. In July, discover your God-given talents in Strengths in Service.

LUNCH AND LEARN WITH FORMAN CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

SUNDAY, AUGUST 5, 12 PM

Several times a year, the IPC Foundation invites you, your family and friends to enjoy lunch at the church while learning about an organization supported by the Foundation. It's your chance to see how the Foundation is changing lives in Birmingham and around the world through support of local and global organizations.

On August 5, Forman Christian College Rector Dr. James Tebbe will be our guest preacher during early worship and the guest speaker at the IPC Foundation's Lunch & Learn.

Lunch costs $10 per person.
RSVP to Marsha Harbin at mharbin@ipc-usa.org or 933-3715.

Look for more information about upcoming Lunch & Learns in the weekly eUpdates and worship bulletins.

NEW! BEER & HYMNS

THIRD MONDAYS, 7 PM

Raise a glass and your voice for the debut on June 11 at Rogue Tavern in Birmingham. Everyone 21 and up is invited to enjoy a beer and some hymns on the following third Mondays. Contact: David Seamon, dseamon@ipc-usa.org

PRAYERS FOR IPC MISSION TEAMS

ZAMBIA MAY 26- JUNE 10

MEXICO JUNE 2- 10

URBAN MISSION JUNE 24- 29

Keep our mission teams in your prayers as they carry out Christ's ministry in the mission field this month. Twelve members are serving at Mission Mwandu in Zambia working with children at the Orphan and Vulnerable Children Center and local schools and assisting the local United Church of Zambia. Another sixteen people are in the Chiapas region of Mexico doing light construction work on a church and working with a Vacation Bible School. Youth will also be serving in Mobile, AL with urban ministries.
